

This Is Fall, You See

Deborah Oakes

Traditional

1. One lit - tle owl ___ call ing in the night, "Who!" call - ing in the night, "Who!"
(Scatter sit on knees, holding owl eye fingers around eyes and calling "Who!" gently and softly)

call - ing in the night, "Who!" One lit - tle owl ___ call - ing in the night, for this is Fall, you see!

2. Two little squirrels skipping up a tree

(Hold up two fingers, then finger scamper with both hands up the tree on "skipping up a tree")

3. Three fat pumkins smiling in the night

(Hold arms in big, round shape around sides and present a huge smile)

4. Four pretty Fall leaves blowing in the wind

(Slowly get to feet and turn around the room using hands as blowing leaves. After each phrase, take time to moan "whooooo")

5. Five little children playing Trick-or-Treat "BOO!"

(Crouch tiptoe around room using feet and hands until time to gently jump towards another student to say "Boo!")
